The Virginia-Carolina baseball league has gone out of commission for this season. The league was small but we hope it will be larger next season and that Wilmington will have a team to help make it larger.

Now it is said that reform is badly needed in Guam. Reform does not necessarily follow the flag, but its necessity appears to follow the flag wherever several Republican officeholders are gathered together in its name.

In Iowa they are putting the injunction to new use. A woman had a court to enjoin a young man from becoming her son-in-law. However, it was as fair for him to enjoin her from any foreign interference in his love affairs.

It is stated that the Chinese ladies have tired of their ideal of tiny feet and will discontinue the custom of deforming their feet by cramping them while girls. American women, however, will go right along compressing their waists out of shape.

A young man in Norfolk mentions as a singular fact that he dreamed that he was married. It might have been a pleasant dream to him but some married men are none too good to say that the young man had a nightmare instead of a dream.

At Middletown, N. Y., a few days ago a young woman thrust her arm in a hole in the bottom of a boat and kept it from sinking while the young man hastily rowed ashore. There is no telling what a girl can do with her arms when she takes a notion.

The investigation of South Carolina's dispensary at Columbia, shows that not a cent of profit for this year's business, or since last November, has been turned in, and that there is an apparent discrepancy of some $30,000 between a sworn financial statement from the State dispensary and the State Treasurer's office. Besides this the dispensary owes $500,000, and a further indebtedness of $200,000 in orders, and only $1,200 in the treasury. That is surely a pretty state of affairs.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Order of Heptasophs or Seven Wise Men will give an excursion to Carolina Beach next Tuesday.

—A street car ran over and killed a dog on North Front street yesterday. The animal was asleep on the track and failed to hear the gong.

—The sewerage system of the Brooklyn Sewerage Company is rapidly nearing completion. It will be only a few days till the last piping shall have been laid, and as soon after that as possible the company will put their system into operation.

—Two marriage linceses were issued yesterday. The couples were as follows: Mr. George Washington Morgan, of Wilmington, to Miss Annie Elizabeth Grissom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. A. Grissom, of Masonboro township; Mr. Augustus S. Wallace, of Delgado, to Miss Julia C. McCabe, of the same village.

—A large crowd went to Carolina Beach last night on the regular midweek excursion. There were about 250 people on this excursion. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. There will be no 2:45 P. M. boat to-day on account of a special trop to sea for the benefit of the excursionists in the city. The regular 5:15 trip will be made, however.

—One of the excursionists while alighting from a street car at Front and Princess streets last night, slipped and fell. He was not hurt himself, but the bottle of John Barley Corn in his back pocket suffered most grievously, being broken into fragments. The excursionist said nothing as he picked himself up, but one did not have to be a psychologist to read in his countenance the fact that he was thinking all the things appropriate to such an occasion.

HEAD SPLIT OPEN IN FIGHT.

Frank Cartwright Uses An Oar on Zack Lumley.

Zack Lumley, a white pressman about 25 years old, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon at the Willard Bag Factory by being struck over the head with an oar in the hands of Frank Cartwright, also white.

The fracas took place on the bottom floor of the bag factory. From the testimony of eye witnesses it seems that the whole affair was the result of a discussion about some money transaction that occurred betwen the two. One word lead to another until finally a vile oath was passed. Cartwright states that he acted in self-defence. He says Lumley seized a mallet and was coming toward him with the intention evidently of using it. Seeing this he took up an oar about four feet long and struck Lumley over the head with it. Bystanders state that he struck Lumley three or four times with the oar. The oar was finally broken, the break occurring about two feet from the end of the handle.

Lumley bled profusely and seemed very weak from the effects of the blows. The police patrol was soon on the scene and both men were taken away. Cartwright was placed under arrest and Lumley was sent to the James Walker Hospital to have his wounds dressed. He had two cuts on his head, one on either side. One was about three inches long, the other two inches in length. After his wounds were dressed Lumley went to his home.

The case will be heard this morning in the Mayor's court. Both men will be tried on the charges of an affray and assault with deadly weapons.

WAREHOUSE AND WHARVES.

Seaboard Air Line to Build South of Wilmington Compress.

The Seaboard Air Line expects in about ten days to begin the construction of a big guano warhouse and wharves on its property just south of the plant of the Wilmington Compress Company. The contract for the erection of this warehouse has been awarded to John P. Pettyjohn & Co. of Lynchburg, Va. The structure will be 150 feet wide and 300 feet in lengh. It will be built of brick.

The Diamond Steamboat & Wrecking Company has the contract for driving the piling for the wharf that will adjoin the warehouse and work on this will commence almost immediately. This warehouse will be quite a large building and will be used exclusively for the storage of guano.

Municipal Court.

Mayor Waddell had quite a number of cases yesterday and disposed of them as follows: L. F. Somers, charged with fast driving, taxed with the costs; Thomas Frank, affray, ordered to pay costs; John Brown, affray, found guilty and fined $10 and costs; Liddie Mintz, drunk and disorderly, judgment suspended on condition that she leave the city immediately; Lottie Davis was sent to the workhouse for 30 days for disorderly conduct; W. A. Casteen, Wm. Rising, and John Williams, disorderly conduct, were each fined $5 and costs; John Mosely, for disorderly conduct, was sent to the roads for 30 days; Stella Croom, disorderly conduct, 30 days in the workhouse; Geo. Hooper was ordered to pay the costs for too freely imbibing of fire water; Julius Fisher fined $5 and costs for an assault.

S. A. L. Ticket Agent.

Mr. W. B. Rose, who has been appointed city ticket agent for the Seaboard Air Line, arrived in the city yesterday and will assume his duties this morning. Mr. Rose is a clever and experienced railroad man, having had considerable experience in this work. He has been in charge of ticket offices at Orlando, Fla., Charlotte and Raleigh.

SUNDAY'S TRAGEDY.

HAD SEVERE GASH ON HEAD.

Propeller Struck Him When He Fell Overboard Sunday Night—Funeral Took Place Yesterday.

The body of Mr. Amos Redd who met a tragic death Sunday night by drowning, was recovered yesterday morning. It will be remembered that Mr. Redd while returning from Carolina Beach on the steamer Wilmington on the regular 8:45 evening trip, fell from the boat and was drowned in Brunswick Bay about six miles south of the city.

The body was discovered early yesterday morning by two fishermen near range light No. 13 about one mile below the spot where the drowning occurred. These fishermen reported the matter to Mate George Warren of the steamer Marion who in turn informed Mr. W. J. Reaves, a friend of Mr. Redd's family.

Mr. Reaves secured the naptha launch Bessie W. and accompanied by the owners of the boat, Messrs. George W. Penny and R. F. Warren, went down the river to bring the body to the city. In the meantime Wm. Mintz, a fisherman, found the body floating down the river, and had tied it to the frame work supporting range light No. 13, which is near the Brunswick county shore. This light is about one mile below the spot where Mr. Redd met his death. The body was put on the launch and brought to the city immediately. To avoid the curiosity seekers who invariably gather on such occasions, the remains were carried to the Custom House wharf and officers were stationed at the entrances and allowed only those to enter whose presence was necessary. Undertaker W. E. Yopp had been notified previously of the finding of the body and had sent his assistant, Mr. Freeman Yopp, to take charge of the body.

After viewing the body the coroner, Dr. C. D. Bell, deemed an inquest unnecessary and gave permission for the body to be buried.

It was deemed best to have the funeral at once owing to the condition of the body. It was much discolored and decomposition had already begun. The head had a deep cut on it, caused probably by a blow from the propeller of the Wilmington. This is more than likely the reason why the body never rose to the surface.

After the body had been prepared for burial it was borne immediately to Bellevue Cemetery where the funeral services took place. Only the near relatives were in attendance at the last sad rites. The funeral services were of a simple nature and were conducted by Rev. F. H. Farrington, pastor of Southside Baptist church. A number of floral tributes were placed on the grave by friends as an attestation of their regard for the deceased. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. J. Reaves, Joseph Bryan Aleck Leslie and J. D. Hedrick. The unfortunate young man is survived by his sorrowing mother, Mrs. K. L Redd, a sister, Mrs. Owen Fulford, and two brothers, Messrs. Clayton C. and John Redd.

Mr. Amos Redd had been employed for some time past as yardmaster of the Riverside Lumber Company. His employers speak in the highest terms of his services and say that he had ever been competent and faithful. The family of the deceased request the Star to express their deep appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown them by friends during this said bereavement. Certainly they have the sympathy of the whole community in this hour of their sorrow.

False Pretence Case Settled.

The case brought by J. P. Goldsborough, proprietor of the Colonial Inn, against J. R. Nelson, a traveling man from Columbia, S. C., was dismissed yesterday by Justice John J. Furlong before whom it was tried. It will be remembered that Mr. Goldsborough had Mr. Nelson arrested several days ago on a charge of false pretence, alleging that Nelson had requested him to cash a check that turned out to be no good. The amount involved in the transaction was $6, and when Mr. Goldsborough had been informed by the bank to whom he presented the check, which he had cashed, that it was no good, he proceeded to take out a warrant for Mr. Nelson's arrest. The case came up before Justice Furlong yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. John D. Bellamy, Esq., attorney for Mr. Nelson, made a statement in which he affirmed that the evidence regarding the existence of the bank named on the check was only hearsay and asked that his client be discharged because of this fact. He made a motion to dismiss the case which Justice Furlong did, basing his decision on the lack of evidence presented by the plaintiff. The matter was settled later by Mr. Nelson's refunding the $6 to Mr. Goldsborough. He left yesterday afternoon for his home.

CASHIER C. N. EVANS HERE.

Arrived from Charlotte to Confer With President Heyer.

Mr. Chas. N. Evans, of Charlotte, who is to be cashier of the new Southern Bank, of Wilmington, arrived in the city yesterday to confer with Mr. M. J. Heyer, president of the new bank. Mr. Evans has resigned as cashier of the Merchant and Farmers National Bank, of Charlotte, and will come to Wilmington to make his home after the 10th of September.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday, says this in a report of the proceedings of the Board of Directors of the Charlotte bank with which Mr. Evans has been associated:

The Board of directors of the Merchants & Farmers' National Bank, at their meeting yesterday morning reluctantly accepted the resignation of Mr. C. N. Evans, as cashier, and elected Mr. W. C. Wilkinson as his successor.

A number of the directors expressed themselves with reference to Mr. Evans' departure. As a testimonial of their esteem and regard the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the board:

"Mr. C. N. Evans, having tendered his resignation as cashier of this bank, to take effect September 10th, 1905, the same, upon his urgent request, is accepted, and Mr. Geo. E. Wilson, president of the bank, is requested to address to Mr. Evans a letter expressing to him the appreciation of the Board of Directors for his faithful and efficient services as cashier, coupled with the assurance that each member of the Board of Directors parts with him with reluctance and wishes him much success in his new field."

Mr. Evans will remove to Wilmington the 10th of next month, so as to be in readiness for the opening on the 15th.

He leaves this morning to superintend some of the preliminary details. He will return in a few days.

As secretary, and later president, of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, Mr. Evans is known over the entire State. He is regarded as one of the foremost bankers of the South. Wilmington is to be congratulated on securing the services of such a well-known banker.

Mr. Evans came to Charlotte in 1902 from Reidsville, where for a number of years he had been cashier of the well-known Bank of Reidsville. He succeeded Mr. Jno. M. Miller, Jr., as cashier of the Merchants & Farmers' Bank, and since his coming to the city he has, by his foresight and judgment, added very materially to the resources of this, one of Charlotte's foremost moneyed institutions. His departure from Charlotte will be sorely missed, not only in his chosen field, but in the social life of the city as well. Mr. Evans is one of the type of the up-to-date business men. There are entirely too few for even one to be allowed to pass out of the city's activities. Hence Charlotte regrets exceedingly to lose Mr. Evans.

The Charlotte Chronicle says:

"This resolution, duly engrossed, was handed to Mr. Evans and accompanying it a personnal letter from which Mr. Evans was too modest to permit extracts, but of which he is very proud. Mr. Evans will be the cashier of the new Wilmington bank when it starts business, and while Charlotte heartily regrets giving him up, it is proud of him and the best wishes of hosts of warm friends here attend him in his larger field of activity. That it is a larger field from a banking standpoint may be a surprise to a great many, but it is nevertheless true that Wilmington has greater banking resources by a million and a

HUNDREDS OF EXCURSIONISTS.

Three Trains Arrived Yesterday—Seaboard Brings 1,000.

The town was full of excursionists yesterday. Three more excursions arrived here during the day. The first one to reach the city was from Pee Dee, S. C. This was a colored excursion and brought about 300 people. They returned home last evening about 8 o'clock.

The other two excursions were for whites and both were run under the auspices of the Seaboard Air Line and managed by Mr. Frank Gough. One reached the city about 4 o'clock, coming from Charlotte. About 300 people came on it. The third and last excursion to reach the city got here about 8 P. M. from Rutherfordton. It was under the personal suspension of Mr. Gough and was by far the largest of the season. There were 700 people on board and it required 13 coaches and two refreshment cars to accommodate them. The excursionists were very orderly and Mr. Gough states that there was not a single outbreak of any rodyism on the trip.

The excursionists spent the night in the city and on the beaches. Numbers of them will go on the special trip which the steamer Wilmington will make out to sea today. The steamer leaves at 9:15 this morning and will return in time to make the regular 5:15 trip to the pier.

Both excursions will leave on the return trip tonight. The Charlotte excursion goes out at 7:30 o'clock and the Rutherfordton excursion will depart a half hour later.

Haymakers Capture Prize.

This year the Haymakers of our city captured the prize offered by their order for the largest numerical increase of the membership list of any one of the various lodges. They succeeding in getting 120 new members during the fiscal year just ended. Seattle, Washington, captured the prize last year with 82 new members.

The local lodge now has a membership of 172. The objects of the order are purely social and the hall, at No. 123 south Front St. is most attractively fitted up.

The total membership of this brotherhood now is 75,000, and the Haymakers have chapters in almost every section of the country.

RED MEN'S CARNIVAL

CARNIVAL WEEK OCT. 16-21.

Attractions Will Be Located on Down Town Streets—There Will Be Ten Shows and Many Free Exhibitions.

The carnival to be given this Fall by Eyota Tribe, No. 5, Improved Order of Red Men, promises to be the most successful affair of its kind ever given in the city. Preliminary details connected with the direction of such an attraction are now being arranged by the Order under whose auspices it is to be given.

The carnival will be held from October 16th to 21st inclusive. A contract has been closed with the Jones & Adams Carnival Company, for the attractions of the carnival. This is said to be one of the best companies on the road and it numbers among its attractions only the best and cleanest shows.

The carnival will be held on the down-town streets instead of on some vacant space at some remote locality from the centre of the city. This will be advantageous in every way and will in many respects add to the success of the carnival. The streets to be used will be Second street from Princess to Dock street, Market and Dock streets from Second to Front. The shows will be located within the limits mentioned and the promoters wish it stated that there will be no interference with the business of the stores on these streets, as the tents will be erected exactly in the middle of the streets leaving passageways on both sides for the use of business traffic.

The carnival company will come here from Kinston where they have an engagement for the week previous to their engagement here. A number of dates in North Carolina towns have been closed by the company. There will be ten shows to which a nominal admission fee will be charged. In addition to the tented attractions, several free shows of merit will be secured to give open air performances during the carnival.

The paid attractions will be as follows: An entirely new animal show which is greatly superior to the one formerly carried by the company; the Stadium or Coliseum, a feature never given here before; the Great Vendome, a marvelous illusion; a freak called Parkhurst; the Frogman, half man and half frog found in Baltimore last July; the Old Plantation, a negro show which reproduces in exact detail the old time Southern plantation; the Indiana Fat Boy who weighs only 640 pounds; the Girls in Red, a vaudeville show; Percy Wells' Snake Show. Wells is a Wilmington man and is a skilled trapeze artist. Other attractions will be the "Hold Up of the Leadville Coach," and the "Bold Bank Robbery," moving pictures which interest all who see them.

The free attractions will be percino, the trapeze artist; the Adams family, aerialists; and "Looping the Gap." In addition to these there will be merry-go-rounds, Ferris wheels and other interesting and entertaining features. A twelve piece band will render open air concerts in the afternoon and at night.

The Haymakers had this same company here last April, when they gave their carnival at Eighth and Orange streets, and it had the best attractions of any company that has visited Wilmington in many a day. The residents of our city were highly pleased with the shows, and will be glad to hear that they will have an opportunity to see them again.

No fakers or gamblers follow this organization, nor will they be tolerated, should any come. Good order will be preserved at all times and the crooks, should they be present, will be severely dealt with.

The committee of arrangements from the Red Men is composed of the following gentlemen: W. L. West, chairman; W. L. Burkheimer, secretary; John W. Batson, treasurer, and Messrs. Sol. Sternberger, W. B. Savage, F. B. LeGwin, E. F. Strunck and J. T. Yates.

Funeral of Mrs. Forrest.

The funeral services of Mrs. Ida Forrest, wife of Mr. John J. Forrest, who died Tuesday night, were held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. The services were conducted by the Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of the St. James' Episcopal church. The interment was made in Bellevue cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Honorary—Mr. J. H. Boatwright. Active—Messrs. James Burriss, Wm. Simpson, K. W. Jewell, Charles Thompson, M. G. Silvia and Ernest Strunck. Mrs. Forrest was a devout member of the Episcopal church, and will be sadly missed in the Chapel in which she was an earnest and consecrated worker.

Wilmington Man Hurt.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot says:

"W. C. Capps, of 323 north Maltby avenue, while at work on repairs to the Camp Manufacturing plant at Franklin Saturday, was seriously burned about the body by the explosion of gasoline. The injured man was sent to his home immediately after the accident, and is now at the Norfolk Protestant hospital in an unconscious condition."

Mr. Capps is a boilermaker and is from Wilmington. He has many friends here who will regret to hear of the sad misfortune which has befallen him.

Deeds Filed Yesterday.

The following deeds were filed yesterday at the office of the Register of deeds: Agnes MasRae Parsely and Walter L. Parsley to Augustus Hirsch, of Chicago, for $4,500, a tract of land, being a portion of the lands well known as the Point Peter Plantation. Thos. P. Bagley to J. O. Bender, consideration $750, a lot near Ninth and Ann streets, in Block 133.

THE BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

First Games Tonight Between W. L. I. and Boys' Brigade.

The first games of the bowling contest arranged by the Consolidated Railways, Light and Power Company will be bowled tonight at Lumina by the teams representing the Wilmington Light Infantry and the Boys' Brigade. The games will be started promptly at 9 o'clock and it is thought the three games to be played will be completed within two hours. Much interest is being taken in this novel contest and a large crowd will undoubtedly be present to witness the opening games.

The W. L. I. team is composed of the following: J. McRee Hatch, George Davis, Holmes Davis, Samuel Potts and F. B. Wilson.

The personnel of the Brigade team is as follows: Dr. Harlee Bellamy, Dr. James M. Hall, C. C. Loughlin, Fred Russ and B. K. Yopp.

The other two teams in the contest are those of the Carolina and Atlantic Yacht Clubs.

The first prize is a handsome silver loving cup now on exhibition in Zoeller & Co.'s window and the second prize is a $5 gold piece. The games will be closely contested, as some of the city's best bowlers are enrolled on the teams.

THE NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 23.—Senator Simmons received a letter from the War Department to-day to the effect that plans for the bridge to be constructed by the lessees of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad between Morehead and Beaufort have been approved so that work can begin at once.

The State Board of Education to-day authorized the sale of 3,000 acres of State swamp lands to Eric Norden, Wilmington. The lands lie in Bladen county. The board is preparing to have a general survey of the State swamp lands so as to have direct information as to the location and character of all the lands. A surveyor has already been engaged.

Governor Glenn left to-day for Red Springs to deliver an address in connection with the "home-comers" celebration there. He will also address a big negro educational rally at Fayetteville while away.

Base Ball Saturday.

"Fans" will hail with delight the news that a baseball game has been arranged for Saturday afternoon. This game is to be played by the Atlantic Coast Line office team and the team from Fort Caswell. Each team has won one game and this game Saturday will decide which is the better of the two teams. A large crowd will doubtless go to Hilton Park to witness the fray. The local team will present the strongest line up of the season and will go after the soldiers with a vengeance. Grimes and Sublett will probably be the battery for the Fort and Zellers and Moore for the locals.

SOUTHERN AND CANADIAN LUMBER.

A good deal is being said in the press about the reciprocity convention which met in Chicago last week. Just what the strength of the movement is hard to divine, but the newspapers are devoting a great deal of space to it. The convention declared war on the stand patters, it is said, but the Democratic party has been holding down that job so long without effort, that we are not expecting much from the reciprocity crowd whose aims are the next best thing to what the Democracy is fighting for.

There is no doubt there is a great and growing unrest under the Republican tariff. It bears unequally upon the sections and it has been so long since the schedules have been revised that some of them appear ridiculous if their effect on some sections and many industries was not so serious.

A large part of the reciprocity talk comes from New England which wants reciprocity with Canada. They want to get cheaper lumber from Canada, and the burden of their objection to the present tariff is that they have to pay a duty of $2.00 per thousand feet on lumber for the benefit of Southern lumber manufacturers. The New Englander thinks it a great outrage that with cheap lumber next door to him that he has to pay $2.00 a thousand feet for lumber in order to keep it from coming into competition with American lumber. For years and years the South squirmed because New England's cotton industries were protected, but we had to grin and endure it. New England's consistency is now seen in her objection to pay a few paltry millions for lumber protection compared to the hundreds of millions benefit which a Republican tariff has poured into her lap.

The greatest source of supply of pine and cypress lumber and hardwoods is in the South Atlantic and Gulf States, and the shipments of lumber north is so tremendous that it threatens to devastate the forests of North Carolina and other Southern States. The products of the Southern forests furnish a large proportion of the freight for the north and south railroads to carry northward, and here is what the Boston Herald says of the situation:

"The transportation of lumber grown near the Gulf to points in the north gives to the railroad systems to which we are now referring a chance to utilize their rolling stock in the direction where the demand for it is least. While certain grades of Southern lumber would come northward for use under any circumstances, it is improbable that the quantity which is now sent here for a market would be equal to what it is if the $2 duty were repealed. The great trunk railroad systems have, then, a direct interest in bringing about this tariff change, for if the lumber business were not artificially stimulated the companies owning railroad systems running to the Gulf would not succeed in obtaining quite a part of the money for northward-bound freight that they are now earning. If, therefore, the great trunk lines use their influence in having the tariff law repealed in this respect, they might make it impossible for the railroad companies running to the South to offer to the farmers of the Mississippi Valley those inducements in rates for their corn and other products which they are sending for a market to Europe that they have been offering when this has been sent by way of Galveston and New Orleans."

Of course, the above is a plain and undisguised proposition for a systematic effort to secure the repeal of the tariff on foreign lumber, so it may be shipped from Canada free of duty and drive Southern lumber out of the New England if not the entire Northern market.

ROBESON'S HOME COMING.

Red Springs, Robeson county, is in her glory this week. The Robeson home-coming celebration began there Tuesday and will continue till Saturday, with a varying programme that will make the affair a delightful and memorable one to all who attend.

On Tuesday the first of the programme of the home-coming was carried out in the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music, and there was a large attendance, many men who were from in Robeson but now live in other counties and States being present to receive a hearty welcome from the stay-at-home Robesonians. A cornet band furnished music and the Rev. Dr. C. G. Vardell introduced Col. E. F. McRae of Maxton, who welcomed the home-comers in a speech which brimmed with good humor and heartiness. Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, a native of Robeson and one of the home-comers, made the response. An account from Red Springs says of Col. McRae's welcome:

"Col. McRae is a member of one of the old Culloden Scotch families, who championed the cause of Prince Charlie and who left their native land and migrated to this region in 1746. He has represented this county in the Senate and has ever interested himself in its affairs. No other citizen could so fittingly have stood as host and spoken for the sons of the county who have stayed at home. Congressman G. B. Patterson, you know, was born and bred in Scotland county. Col. McRae said he had no preeedent; that no address of welcome had been found worthy of publication. Not knowing the former and being well aware of the sweltering heat he might have declined the invitation to pronounce this welcome; but he confessed himself like the Scotchman up on the Lumber river who, when asked to take a drink, said he was such an awkard hand at making excuses what he would take the drink.

"He gave an account and a highly interesting one of the county since 1874. He did not say why he took that date as his "terminus a quo," but everybody knew, without the telling, that that was the year of the scatteration of the Lowrie gang, which marks as great an era in local history as the end of the war. The speech did not roar and flash with any reconstruction thunder, nor did the scream of any secessionist spread-eagle split the air. It was compact, of good sense and wholesome humor. The population in 1874 was 16,000, now it is 45,000. There was then in the county one railroad of 30 miles. Now it has more railroad mileage than any other county in the State. Its property valuation has increased since then from $1,500,000 to $10,140,000. Its per capita wealth is $251 as against $99 then. Then it had 20 barrooms, one school, no bank; now it has no barroom, no great moral institution, this flourishing college, the Military Academy here, the Robeson Institute at Lumberton, numerous high schools and six banks. The sheep have decreased in Robeson from 8,000 to 394, but that decrease has no relation to the immigration of so many of the Scotch. The mules have increased from 1,010 to 5,800, but nobody must judge thereby that the Scotch are mulish. Singularly enough he had no statistics bearing on the goats with which all the gallberry bushes in lower Robeson are shaking. This county, he said, is first in area, fourth in population and first in cotton and railroad mileage, and its people are generous, industrious, honest, sober, upright and religious."

Professor Carlyle's response was a happy and entertaining one and the home-comers and large numbers of citizens greatly enjoyed this opening feature of the celebration.

The feature of the celebration at night was an informal gathering, at which Mr. Hamilton McMillan, the sage of Robeson, was the principal speaker. Mr. McMillan is a ripe scholar and a man of a vast store of information and we are willing to venture the assertion that no more entertaining address will be heard during the celebration.

Robeson is a great county and the home-comers celebation will serve to show what she is in the North Carolina sisterhood of counties and will also attract attention to the enterprising and beautiful town of Red Springs.

E. H. CONGER RESIGNS.

American Ambassador to Republic of Mexico.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Oyster Bay, August 22.—Edwin H. Conger, of Iowa, has resigned his post as Amercan ambassador to Mexico to take effect October 18th next, and President Roosevelt has accepted the resignation.

Mr. Conger's retirement from the diplomatic service was foreshadowed in these dispatches last week. It was indicated then that he might be sent to Pekin as a special commissioner. There are reasons to believe that the mission either has been abandoned by the President or that it has been declined by Mr. Conger. At any rate, it is believed, Mr. Conger will not go to China, as a representative of the government.

It has not bee determined definitely yet who will succeed Mr. Conger. David E. Thompson, of Nebraska, now American ambassador to Brazil desires the Mexican post.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The testimony in their divorce case shows unmistakably that the Taggarts were after all made for each other. Nobody else could possibly have wanted either of them.—Philadelphia Press.

—The census bureau now finds, from its reports by cotton ginners, that the crop of 1904 was 95,497 bales larger than the bureau estimated it in April report, carrying the total to 13,693,279 bales. It is sincerely to be hoped that the government reports in future will be made more reliable than they have been in the recent past.—Savannah News.

—One of the striking features of this Democratic primary campaign in Virginia is the way in which the contest for the United States senatorship overshadows the contest for the governorship. In former times, men used to resign from the Senate to get the gubernatorial honor. Now they regard the Senator as holding a higher post than the Governor, and governors resign to enter the Senate. "The times change, and we change with them."—Norfolk Landmark.

—That our trade with foreign countries can be increased by the establishment of steamship lines regardless of the question whether they are needed or not, is one of the fallacies put forward in place of argument by the greedy adventurers who want the Government to shoulder the risk by using the people's money in the shape of a subsidy. They take no note of the law of supply and demand, because they expect the Government to furnish the supply; and, if it outruns the demand, to make good the loss. They proceed, further, on the assumption that the merchants of the foreign countries want to receive their American goods in American ships.—Brooklyn Citizen.

TWINKLINGS.

—Husband—Well, I must say that all fools are not dead yet! Wife (affectionately)—I'm glad of it, dear. I never look well in black!—Illustrated Bits.

—She—Do you really love me for myself alone? He—Sure. That's why I don't want your mother to live with us after we are married.—Somerville Journal.

—She—Do you know, I've induced Mr. Tightwad to give up cigars? He—Is that so? Why, I've known him for seven years and I never saw him give up one.—Chicago News.

—"I didn't know Henpeck was ever a jailbird." "He wasn't." "Why, he told me he lived in the House of Correction." "That's his name for 'home.'"—Detroit Free Press.

—"I never thought," said the conceited lecturer, "that my voice would fill the hall." "No," replied the candid man, "I thought at one time it would empty it."—Washington Star.

—"My husband and I read to each other every evening, now; it's just splendid," said Mrs. Newlowed. "Why don't you and your fiance do that when he calls on you?" "Gracious!" replied Miss De Muir, "how can you read in the dark?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

—The Breath of Suspicion.—"Was Mr. Bliggins ever mixed up in any scandal?" "I don't know," answered the neighbor who gossips. "I understand that he subscribes to everything that a book agent offers him."—Washington Star.

—Muggins—I wanted my doorway painted white in the Colonial style, and that fool of a decorator did it up brown. I fired him on the spot. Buggins—I suppose you told him never to darken your door again.—Philadelphia Record.

—The rich father—So you want to marry my daughter, young man? The young man—That's the idea, Sir. The rich father—Well, I consent. That's settled. The young man—Yes, Sir; now we will consider the proposition for a concession of lands and a money indemnity.—Yonkers Statesman.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, August 23.—The cotton market showed continued activity with bulls aggressive and prices upward new high levels for the present upward movement. The close was about 6 to 7 points off from the best, but steady at a net advance of 15 to 18 points. Sales were estimated 550,000 bales.

The opening was strong at an advance of 10 to 15 poins on better cables than expected and continued crop damage accounts resulting from the unbroken spell of dry, hot weather in Texas. Demand was again confined chiefly to the professional bull pools, their following and speculative shorts, but there was comparatively little offering and prices continued to advance. An effort by Wall Street longs to take profits resulted in some irregularity about mid-day, and above 11 cents for October, offerings seemed to increase, but that position sold at 11.30 in the early afternoon, with January at 11.20 and the general list about 23 to 24 points net higher. Toward the close realizing was more liberal, and prices sagged off from the best, but leading bulls still seemed to be supporting the market and were predicting still higher prices before the September bureau. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c. higher and private cables reported Liverpool steadied by increasing crop damage reports and expectations of peace to-day in the Far East.

Receipts at the port steady, 7,384 bales against 6,424 last week and 4,084 last year. for the week (estimated) 50,000 bales, against 50,609 last week and 32,539 last year.

OUR SHOE DEPARTMENT

We have been receiving a great quantity of Fall shoes and we handle several strong lines. We sell the Crosset shoe that makes life's walk easy for men. To wear this shoe will be a pleasure to them and the style they represent are all up to date new things. We sell the Battle Ax shoe in all its different styles, from $1.25 to $3.50 a pair. We are showing a line of shoes for men, of genuine Goodyear welt, shoes that retail everywhere for $2.50, we are making a special offer of $2.00 on this line. We sell a man a good all solid shoe for $1.25 a shoe that will wear and prove satisfatoory. In our ladies' shoe department, we sell "The Southern Girl." "The Southern Bell," "The Vicious," and several other lines, all at $1.50 a pair. "The Southern Bell" and "Vicious" is absolutely guaranteed to wear and is solid in every pair. If not satisfactory, we give a new pair in place of them. You get the same service that you do in a $2.50 shoe and only pay $1.50. We handle all grades of boys and girls shoes and in all prices, from 25c to $2.50 a pair.

FURNITURE.

Our furniture store shows a nice selection of iron beds, a big line of springs and a splendid line of mattresses. A nice line of cots, pillows, some extra good lounges, plenty of bed room suits from $16.00 to $75.00 a suit. Iron beds from $2.98 to $10.00 each. Wire springs from $1.98 to $5.00 each. Felt mattresses at $6.00, $7.50 and up to $15.00 each. Cotton top mattress full size, extra heavy at $1.98. A mattress cotton both sides, tufted edges for $3.25 each. Blankets, quilts and comforts, all grades and styles. We feel that our stock is complete in this line. We are offering some very good values for your inspection. Our big clothing store is new with us from last season. Our stock this Fall will be all new. We bought our Winter stock early in the season and had them made especially to our order. We have also added a nice tailoring department in which we can show you five hundred samples to select from. Every garment suit is guaranteed to fit and we feel certain that our prices are lower than other concerns. We believe in small profits and quick sales. We would like to show you our book of samples. Why not step in and see them.

In our big store Nos 208 and 210 which is 49 feet wide and 125 feet long, is filled full of goods for ladies and families. We carry the greatest assortment of dress goods sold in the city and almost in the State. We bought our dress goods stock early, from different factories in the month of June. These goods are made especially for our store and we are today able to sell dress goods as low as we ever have in the history of our business. Our serges are 44 inches wide, extra heavy weight that we can show you for 50c a yard. Our ladies' cloth that we sell for 98c is 54 inches wide and extra nice quality. It is finished with a high soft finish and has been sponged and shrunk and is of the same quality that you are offered elsewhere at $1.25. In our dress goods department we are showing a line of goods that represents all the Fall styles in tricats, serges, coverts, sicilians, brilliantines, broadcloths, kerseys, flannels and dozens of other materials too numerous to mention.

Why stop to think. Go to Gaylord's with your memoranda. He can fill it complete.

His clothing store for men and boys. It is no joke, we have the grandest assortment of clothing of any store in town. Our Fall stock is bought from the best tailoring concerns in the country and our goods are the latest and newest styles. We can fit your little son with any kind of suit you may like and for yourself, yes you, it matters not who, if you want to pay a little or you want to pay much. Our stock and selection is great enough and we think we can please both you and your pocket book. You know the old adage "a dollar saved is a dollar made." Why pay the regular clothing house a hundred per cent. profit, when Gaylord will sell it to you for 25 per cent. Look through our stock and see if it is not as large or larger than any house in the city. The named prices would be of no value to you nor a guide as quality represents price and we claim to sell good quality with a low price. To prove this, we ask you to give us a look. Go in our store, 206 Front street, and see the prettiest store in the State, 35 feet wide by 120 feet deep, where you will find men's clothing, boys' clothing, shirts, collars, neckties, handkerchiefs and gent's general furnishings on the first floor. We also carry men's overalls, The Headlight, the best overall sold in the world, every seam is felled and every garment is sold on an absolute ten day's guarantee. If not perfectly satisfactory we take them back and refund the money. They are no more than any other overall, only $1.00 each. We have also a cheaper brand called "Never Rip," extra good value at 50c a pair.

Our line of hosiery and gloves is something for your consideration. We fel that our stock is complete in this line and we don't stop to worry your memorandum. Gaylord has what you want. He owns his goods at the right price and he wants to sell them. He pays cash and he gets cash. You pay nobody's debts buying from Gaylord as he treats every one alike. He punches cards with every purchase and gives away valuable presents free. He looks after your wants in all the small things you may need and sells you many articles for two and three cents that others charge you five cents for, and the same way through the whole store.

You cannot miss the place it is near the Postoffice, Nos. 206, 208 and 210 North Front street. The largest one man's store in the State.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—A company is being organized by W. R. Stroupe to establish a wagon manufactory at Stateville.

—Will Miller, a desperate negro wanted at Goldsboro, was captured Tuesday in Little Washington.

—It is said that in twelve months the Atlantic & North Carolina Railway will be in operation to Beaufort.

—State Commissioner of Agriculture S. L. Patterson will be back from Europe by the end of September. He landed at Bremen on Tuesday.

—Frank Gilliam, aged 17, was drowned on Sunday while in bathing in a pond near Nissan Park, Winston-Salem.

—While sewing at her machine Tuesday, Miss Mary Lane, of Goldsboro, had the painful experience of driving the needle through her finger. Fortunately, it did not break off, and the wound, while painful, is not serious.

—Raleigh News and Observer: J. G. DeRoulhac Hamilton to-day finished his three months' work here in the State Library, procuring material for a thesis on "Reconstruction Times in North Carolina." He goes home to Hillsboro to prepare it.

—The Greensboro Storage and Warehouse Company, of which Mr. J. E. Latham is secretary and treasurer, has bought a lot 200x500 feet, on Guilford avenue, and will build a large warehouse for storing cotton for Latham & Company, cotton dealers of Greensboro. A side-track, 500 feet long will be put in.

—Mr. Zadock Thompson, one of Goldsboro's oldest and most highly respected citizens, met with a fatal accident Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He was engaged in shingling the roof of Mr. L. D. Bass's residence, when he either lost his balance or had an attack of vertigo and fell to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. He died Tuesday night at 7:05 o'clock. He was 69 years of age, and was a brave Confederate soldier. He leaves a wife and five children.

—Gastonia Gazette: American made cotton cloth is in demand in the far off markets of eastern Africa. Mr. Jno. F. Love showed us yesterday a letter dated Paris August 8th and addressed to the Avon Mills. It was an inquiry for samples of "the grey cotton sheeting sold in Abyssinia." The goods were to be shipped to Alexandria. Abyssinia is as far from Paris as Alaska is from Gastonia, but the people over there seem to want American sheeting.

—Near Kernersville, Forsyth county, on Wednesday of last week: John Jamison, colored, aged about 55 or 60 years, was killed by lightning, but his body was not found till Saturday evening. Jamison was in a tobacco barn. It is presumed that he went in the barn during the rain storm. The gable of the building was completely destroyed. Jamison's hat was torn to pieces, while one arm and side was badly burned. One leg of his pants was ripped from top to bottom.

—An Asheville dispatch on Tuesday says: "Chief" Greenwood, the bad man from Big Ivy, who stabbed his wife in so fearful a manner several days ago, and who was captured at Erwin, near Johnson City, Tenn., last Friday morning, has made his escape and is now supposed to be in hiding somewhere in the mountains of Tennessee. The escape of Greenwood reflects no credit on his captors and in Tennessee it is even hinted that the escape was connived at.

—A most heartrending accident happened at the Friends' Orphanage, two miles from High Point on Tuesday just before the noon hour, which caused the death of one of the little orphans, Lizzie Bryant, who attempted to start a fire in a stove with kerosene oil. There were smouldering coals in the stove and as soon as the oil struck them a deadly flame leaped out and enveloped the can, which the orphan girl held, and it exploded with a thunderous noise, scattering fire over the room and burning the child so badly that she died. Mrs. John Montgomery, the matron, heroically went to the rescue and sustained painful burns about the arms and hands, trying to save the little parentless girl under her care.

—Raleigh correspondence, Charlotte Observer: Manager W. P. Batchelor, of the dispensary, in the course of an interview, said that of the sales, two-thirds go out of town. As he put it: "Most of the buyers are foreign gentlemen." The sales will be at least $10,000 greater than they were last year. He remarked that a lot of money which, under the bar-room system, was spent for drink, is now spent for victuals and clothes, yet far too much is spent at the dispensary. Of course, not nearly so much is spent at the dispensary system as used to be in the bars. He has no doubt, if there is an election this fall, that the dispensary wil stand. A new element is being brought in, the liquor men trying to "down" Senator Simmons, because he drafted the Watts law. That law was jointly drafted by Senator Simmons and Governor Aycock.

—The sale of Jerseys by Geo. W. Vanderbilt on Tuesday at Baltmore, near Asheville was an event in the history of the Biltmore estate. More than 200 people attended the sale and, of this number, about 28 were active bidders. Twenty-eight Jerseys were sold during the afternoon, bringing a total of $6,855. The first 14 animals sold brought $4,500, or an average of more than $300 each. Buyers from Tennessee, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Illinois, Alabama and Mississippi were here to attend the sale. The highest price paid for an imported cow was $735, sold to A. M. Bowman, of Salem, Va. Among the prominent men here to witness the sale were H. Benton, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington; Prof. J. N. Harper, Clemson College, S. C.; Dr. Tait Butler, of Raleigh, and Mr. Adams, of Dix-Hill Hospital, Raleigh.

—An Asheville dispatch on Monday says: Several months ago W. A. Davis, of Woolsey, killed a young chicken from whose gizzard was taken three gold nuggests that assayed $5 in pure gold. The chicken was raised by Mr. Davis and in view of the fact that it ranged along what is known as the So. Long branch, on the northern outskirts of Asheville, there was every reason to believe that the fowl had picked the nuggets from the bank of the bed of the stream and that the branch, which empties into the French Broad river, contained no little amount of gold. To-day it was learned that a resident of that section had panned from the stream a number of penny-weights of gold and the people owning property along the branch are said to be greatly interested in the find and that developments are looked for at no distant date. It is known that some correspondence has been had with a mining expert who may be induced to come here and prospect for gold in that locality.

The sugar famine brought about by the quarantine against freight from New Orleans, is fast becoming a serious matter in Nashville. It has been years since the supply of sugar has been so short there. Accordingly to the Nashville Banner's advices the same conditions of affairs exist in many of the smaller towns throughout Tennessee.

TESTS PATIENCE

Nothing spoils a good disposition,
Nothing taxes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin,
Itching Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake.
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merit of Doan's Ointment.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119 1-2 Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no one knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say brought the first relief I had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Knight runs this year on Labor Day will be assured a most delightful time.

Train will leave Atlantic Coast Line Depot at 7:30 A. M. and will leave Fayetteville on the return at 12:00 o'clock midnight. Round trip only $1.00. aug 18-tf.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; price 50c. **

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. **

A Touching Story

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At R. R. Bellamy drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free. **

INVESTIGATING THE DISPENSARY SCANDAL

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Columbia, S. C., August 23.—Sensational evidence was given today by F. M. Mixson, who was commissioner of the South Carolina Dispensary, before the legislative investigating committee in 1895. He testified that he demanded five per cent. rebates from every whiskey concern from which he purchased liquor. During his eleven months incumbency he said these rebates amounted to $20,000 which was turned over to the State treasurer. When asked what inducements, if any, had ever been offered him to buy certain brands of whiskey, the witness said several houses had offered him bribes to favor certain goods. Witness swore that S. J. Lanahan, of the firm of W. M. Lanahan & Sons, of Baltimore, had offered him $30,000 for a portion of the dispensary business for his firm. Mixson testified:

"Sam Lanahan came to see me while I was in my office. The office was simply a partitioned room and he wanted to talk to me so that the clerks could not hear. I told him he had better not then. He said he could come later and when I left the office that evening he met me and said that he hoped I would not get mad. I told him to go ahead. He asked me about trading with him. He figured up that if I pushed his goods it would be worth about $30,000 to me. I declined and he asked me if I had any friends who would accept it. I told him no. He told me I had better lay up something for my old age. It was a strong temptation but I refused it and told him:

"'So help me God, I will never buy from you.'"

Mixson also testified that Hahalovitch, Fletcher & Company, of Cinnati, had offered him $10,000 for his patronage, which he also refused to accept.

When called upon to produce correspondence with the firm of J. W. Kelly & Company, of Chattanooga, Tenn., which he has had as their representative in selling corn whiskey to the dispensary, Mixson admitted that the letters were in the city and within easy reach, but declined to give them up.

After considering the matter the committee decided that the letters must be produced or Mixson be imprisoned for contempt. Witness asked to be given until tomorrow at which time he would either produce the letters or refuse to do so, saying that he wished to consult counsel. After he had promised not to dispose of or put the letters beyond the jurisdiction of the committee, Mixson's request was granted.

The committee adjourned until tomorow.

WARM WIRELETS.

Five hundred delegates, representing cities and towns in all sections of the country, were present yesterday at the opening session of the ninth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, at Toledo, Ohio.

On account of the yellow fever scare, Wilder's brigade will not hold its annual reunion in this city at the time of the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland. A letter to this effect has been received from Commander Kilborn.

The trials of the submarine torpedo boat Plunger in the presence of President Roosevelt probably will take place either Friday or Saturday. While he is interested in the performance of the vessel the President has no intention of being aboard of her during the trials or to go down with her when she makes a dive.

Frederick Peckham, indicted for complicity in the Department of Agriculture cotton reports scandal, was arrested at Saratoga yesterday and arraigned before United States Commissioner Charles M. Davison, who ordered an adjournment of examination until to-day. In defaut of $12,000 bail Peckham was lodged in the Saratoga county jail at Ballston.

Guy Earle Howett, yeoman aboard the receiving ship Franklin, stationed at the Norfolk navy yard, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the heart. Howett left a note directing the disposition of some personal effects and requesting that his be shipped to his father, W. A. Howett, No. 1 Park Row, Chicago. It is not known what prompted the man's act.

A local freight on the Greenville and Laurens railroad was wrecked yesterday near Barksdale, four miles from Laurens. It is thought that the accident occurred on account of an iron bolt on the tract. The colored fireman was killed and Engineer J. L. Bearden badly injured. The engine and seven cars were demolished. There have been three wrecks near this point within the past six months and foul play is suspected.

Secretary A. C. Hutchinson of the Southern Soft Yarn Spinners' Association, has issued a call for a general meeting of all the Southern spinners of soft and hosiery cotton yarns to convene at Atlanta, Ga., on the second of September. The advisory board of the organization has many matters of importance to this branch of the cotton industry prepared for consideration and every indication points for the meeting being largely attended.

RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

Several Political Murders in the Baltic Provinces.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, August 23.—The situation in the Baltic provinces is not improving. Several political murders have been reported. Official advices show that the disturbances are fostered and directed by a thoroughly organized social revolutionary committee, with headquarters at Riga, the emissaries, of which, defy the best efforts to the police. The intelligence department of this committee supplies ample warning of the movement of troops. Four of the leaders were arrested recently, one of whom was a woman. The Social revolutionaries are very strong at Riga, Roval and Libeau.

RUSSIA WILL NOT ACCEPT COMPROMISE

Characterized as a Sham, a Diplomatic Attempt to Force Payment of Indemnity

THE PARTING OF THE WAYS

Russia Will Not Conclude a Peace Treaty Which Includes the Payment of an Indemnity or any Financial Contribution.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Portsmouth, N. H., August 23.—The Japanese plenipotentiaries at the conclusion of the afternoon session of the peace conference threw the cards upon the table. It was the dramatic moment—the moment to which all the previous proceedings of the conference had led. The protocols involving agreement upon eight of the twelve conditions originally presented by Japan had been signed. One side or the other must make a move or the plenipotentiaries had reached the parting of the ways. The adversaries faced each other across the table. Of course it was well understood what would happen but that in a way only made it more dramatic. Figuratively President Roosevelt suddenly entered the conference room.

Japan's Position.

Mr. Witte sat silent and the move in the great diplomatic game passed to Japan. Baron Komura in a few words explained that Japan in her great desire for peace was ready to make certain "modifications" of the original articles in the hope that Russia could find it proper to accept them. He then presented in writing to Mr. Witte, the compromise proposition which President Roosevelt had suggested. It was concrete and specific and it followed the lines outlined in these dispatches. It offered to withdraw article 9, providing for the payment by Russia of Japan's bill for the cost of war, on condition that Russia would accept Article 5, which provides for the cession of the island of Sakhalin, so modified as to include an arrangement for the re-purchase by Russia of the northern half of the island for 1,200,000,000 yen. In addition it offered to withdraw entirely articles 11 and 12 (surrender of the interned warships and limitation upon Russia's sea power in the Far East). It was President Roosevelt's compromise and Mr. Witte knew its contents as well as Baron Komura. The question of whether he had been "bluffing" was put to the test.

What Russia Had to Say.

Without a moment's hesitation Mr. Witte explained that the modification proposed was merely a sham, a change of phraseology, a diplomatic attempt to "dorer la pilule" and ask Russia to pay war tribute under another name. He could not accept it. He told Baron Komura Russia wanted peace. She had given the proofs in accepting every article involving the issues upon which the war was fought but she could fight and money for tribute she would not pay, not a copeck. He asked Baron Komura to withdraw all demands for tribute. And so the plenipotentiaries separated, to meet on Saturday, ostensibly to permit Mr. Witte to place in writing as the rules of his reply to the Japanese compromise proposition. In reality the adjournment over the two days was to give each side an opportunity to consult its government for the last time.

The Outlook Black.

The outlook is black, many believe it was never so black as tonight. The Japanese are not talking. Indeed tonight they appear to be more taciturn and more resolute than ever. The only possible line of further Japanese concession is considered to lie in the direction of a diminution of the amount of the purchase money demanded for the north half of Sakhalin. The decision rests, therefore, as it has from the first, with Russia. Unless the Emperor agrees to yield between now and Saturday, the end is likely to come on that day. And the indications from Peterhof, instead of raising the chances of a change of heart on the part of the Emperor, seem to indicate even a firmer determination to yield neither territory nor indemnity, sugar-coated though the latter may be.

The long instruction received last night, while not a reply to the communication of President Roosevelt, given to Mr. Witte at the navy yard yesterday afternoon was of a character to almost completely destroy hope that it will be possible for Mr. Witte to satisfy the Japanese demand. Mr. Witte himself has been quoted as saying that he would not if ordered to do so by the Emperor sign a treaty involving the payment of a copeck. But it must be borne in mind that Mr. Witte in the negotiations is not a free agent. He represents his Emperor. If he were absolutely free this conference would not fail. He would make peace. He sympathize with the solution offered by the President, but his hands are tied and unless he receives an imperial command he cannot move.

Black as the prospect appears tonight, however, the failure of the negotiations is not certain. The Russian camp is pessimistic to a man but they all know the quick and startling changes of front that sometimes take place at Peterhof. And there are factors in the situation which might effect one of those sudden and inexplicable changes in the Emperor's attitude which has frequently astonished Russia.

Sentiment in Russia.

Private advices from St. Petersburg say that sentiment there, in Moscow and other large centers favors acceptance of the compromise. This may mean much. But the real hope still rests with President Roosevelt. He is resourceful. He has made another move. He has sent Ambassador Meyer direct to the Emperor and they were together according to advices received here, for three hours today.

Mr. Roosevelt himself tonight may know more about how the Emperor feels than Mr. Witte and be able to act upon the information conveyed to him by his ambassador.

The report is industriously circulated here that Emperor William is responsible for the attitude of Emperor Nicholas and everything is traceable back to the meeting of the two Emperors on board the Hohenzollern in the Finnish gulf. In support of this it is positively stated that after the interview Mr. Witte's instructions were made stronger and more unyielding.

St. Petersburg, August 24.—2 A. M.—In view of the known Russian attitude on the other eight points, Russia believes that Japan's insistence on indemnity is the only thing that will make peace impossible. Officials declare that attempts at word juggling, such as calling indemnity by some other name, or attempting to collect indemnity under the guise of other payments will avail nothing. Russia, they say, will not conclude a peace treaty at Portsmouth, which includes the payment of indemnity or other financial contribution.

Russia is ready, however, to make a reasonable and proper payment for the maintenance of the Russian prisoners in the hands of the Japanese.

Portsmouth, August.—From an authoritative source, the Associated Press is informed that the proposition to divide the Island of Sakhalin came from the Russian side.

Official statement:

At to-day's sitting of the conference the protocols were signed in due form after which the conference adjourned until Saturday.

Portsmouth, August 23.—The following authoritative statement has been made to the Associated Press explaining the Russian position with regard to the latest stage of the peace negotiations:

"Statements have appeared in prominent American and English papers which, while eloquent, studiously moderate, and well intentioned, are unhappily calculated to mislead the world as to the prospects of peace and the general character of Japan's so-called new proposal with which it is contended Russia can close without loss of dignity. It is quite true, as those papers predicted, that the envoys of Japan came forward at today's sitting with a proposal which was a new form, but old in substance. It is equally true that proposal lacks the two contentious clauses stipulating that Russia shall surrender to Japan her disarmed warships and limit her naval power on the Pacific and that it reduces the differences between the two powers to the compass of what is in appearance a single question, the sale of Sakhalin. Seemingly, therefore, Japan has also struck her pen through the most obnoxious clause of all—that which deals with indemnity, and all that she now asks Russia to do in addition to the terms already agreed upon is to purchase the northern half of Sakhalin for a sum of one milliard and two hundred million yen (1,129,000,000). And this alleged simplification of terms is supposed to provide Russia with an acceptable basis for a peace treaty.

At first sight the offer may perhaps seem new to some, but a closer examination will show it to be in all, essentials, identical with the proposal already rejected by Russia's plenipotentiaries. Only a person unfamiliar with war, in love with humanitarianism, foreign to Russia and incompetent to judge of Russia's national honor and dignity, could decry in those terms the source of a new impulse given to the peace negotiations.

"The elimination of the two clauses stipulating that Russia's disarmed warships be handed over to Japan and her naval strength on the Pacific be restricted brings no new element into the transaction. For the withdrawal of these claims which were obviously put forward with the intention of being waived in the course of negotiations is devoid of importance. The disarmed ships in question are Russia's by right and to ask that they be handed over to Japan is to demand a breach of the law of nations. Again the limitations of Russia's naval effectiveness on the Pacific is meaningless because she will be unable for a quarter or it may be half a century to dispose of warships enough to keep a squadron there equal to Japan's, while it would be fruitless to maintain a smaller one. Consequently to speak of these things as concessions is but to play with words. It is equally childish to affirm that Japan foregoes her claim for an indemnity because the new proposal does not actually mention it. All that she does is to join the question of Sakhalin with that of a cash payment and to insist upon war costs under the name of purchase money. The transaction is fictitious and the terminology misleading. If what is proposed be in truth a purchase and sale it should be treated as such; and therefore, should Russia decline to buy the territory Japan should keep it and conclude peace on the basis of the concessions already made. Again, if a purely business transaction were indeed intended the value of the territory offered would be the basis on which the two parties would treat. But now even this essential is not observed. The price demanded for the northern half of the island is 1,200,000,000 yen which is the original estimates of the war costs. Possibly Japan may have fixed that sum with the intention of whittling it down to some extent later on, but Russia, mindful of her national honor, of her military strength and of her historic traditions will not and cannot consent to pay a war indemnity by whatsoever name it may be called, nor can she, nor indeed, the world at large, regard Japan's proposal as a proof of a genuine desire for peace.

"If the efforts of American friends are to be crowned with success, if the labors of the conference are not to end in smoke and if the effusion of blood in the Far East is to be terminated, it behooves Japan to make a frank declaration that she withdraws once for all and without reserve her demand to have her war costs paid in any shape or form. Therefore, despite the positive and emphatic declaration of the well meaning but mistaken journalists alluded to above, peace is not and cannot be assured until Japan unreservedly withdraws her claim to have the costs of the campaign refunded by Russia."

"We are not talking," he said. "We are not fighting this battle in the newspapers. When all is over we will give our side of the story to the world."

BRITISH VESSEL LOST.

The Bidston Hill Foundered—Eighteen of Crew Drowned.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Buenos Ayres, August 23.—A report has been received here of the foundering of the British bark Bidston Hill. The report states that eighteen of the crew were drowned. The remainder, who were saved, are expected to arrive at Buenos Ayres by one of the Argentina steamers.

The Bidston Hill was a four-masted bark built in Liverpool in 1886 and owned by the sailing ship Bidston Hill Company, Limited, of Liverpool. She was commanded by Captain Jones and was 2,434 tons measurement. She sailed from Hamburg, May 19th, for San Francisco, and was last spoken on June 14th.

THE OUTLOOK FAIR IN NEW ORLEANS

The Fever is Reported to Be Spreading Rapidly Outside of the City

REFUGEES SPREAD DISEASE

Only Five Deaths Yesterday—The Number of New Cases Growing Less—Health Officers and the Governor Hold Conference.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Orleans, August 23.—The following is the official report to 6 P. M. Wednesday:

New cases, 53; total to date, 1.556.
Deaths, 5; total to date, 213.
New foci, 10; total to date, 353.
Cases under treatment, 312.

The report continues to show an improvement in total conditions. There are no well known names on the list of new cases or among the deaths, Only one of the latter occurred up town.

There was no news of a gloomy character from the country to-day. The State Board of Health has taken steps to relieve the distress at Leeville and the mouth of Bayou LaFouche.

Passed Assistant Surgeon Corput made an elaborate report of the work done in St. John and St. Charles parishes, and this indicates that what threatened to be a very serious group of foci has been controlled with good hopes of stamping out the infection. This report covers LaPlace, Diamond, Reserve, Sarpy and other neighboring places.

Dr. Brady returned from his tour of inspection on Bayou Pidgeon in Iberville parish where a large group of suspicious cases were reported, but he says there were no suspicious cases. Hanson City reports nine new cases.

Willswood plantation in Jefferson parish reports two more cases.

One additional case was reported from St. Rose and another at a point near that town in St. Charles parish.

Patterson reports eleven new cases and no deaths.

Lake Providence has developed five more cases of yellow fever pronounced so by Dr. Krauss, of the Marine Hospital Service.

St. Bernard parish reports two more cases in the Italian village and Dr. Meraux, who went to Terre Aux Boeufs says there are five cases of yellow fever there and three suspicious cases.

Mississippi City reports three new case.

Dr. Von Ezedorf of the Marine Hospital Service, ordered here from Colon by General Wyman arrived at quarantine to-day on the steamer Origin and will reach the city to-morrow.

The yellow fever situation apparently improved in New Orleans to-day, while the scourge is reported to be gaining renewed energy in Louisiana outside of this city.

To-day the number of yellow fever deaths fell to five from nine yesterday while only ten new disease centers were reported to-day as against 21 yesterday. There were four fewer new cases reported to-day than on yesterday. The number of cases under treatment in New Orleans gradually grows fewer in spite of the large number of new cases reported each day.

Surgeon White, Chairman Janvier of the Citizens' Committee, Dr. Beverly Warner, in charge of the ward superintendents, and President Souchon, of the State Board of Health, went to Baton Rouge to-day for a conference with Governor Blanchard. The trip was made at the suggestion of the Governor who desired to know at first hand the exact status of all departments of the work. Since the beginning of the yellow fever, the Governor hus been unable to put his foot in New Orleans. Quarantine has penned him up in Baton Rouge and he has been compelled to confine himself to telegraphic and telephonic communication.

A feature of the situation that is attracting attention is the fact that what are termed centers of infection now exceed the number of cases under treatment. It is an encouraging feature, because it is an indication of a slow extension of the fever, which is practically true of the quarters above Canal street.

It is hoped soon to reduce the number of disease centers. There has been no attempt at reduction since the first announcement of the fever a month ago.

Ordinarily it would be assumed that a center would become extinctint wenty days, the length of time within which the stegomyia mosquito should furnish fresh cases in any neighborhood which has been infected. In order to take no chances, health officers will not cancel any disease centers until thirty days have elapsed.

Inspectors to-day discovered three cases in an Italian settlement beyond the outskirts of the city.

Large quantities of rock salt have been purchased by the Federal authorities with a view of salting stagnant gutters and pools. The sale is intended to destroy the pools as breeding places for mosquitoes.

A fresh infected spot in St. Bernard parish seat was announced today. Health Officer Meraux found five genuine cases and three that were suspicious. The town and its vicinity were invaded by Italians after the fever appeared at New Orleans.

Governor Blanchard and Governor Jelks threaten to become engaged in a controversy over the quarantine regulations of Alabama. Citizens who had left Louisiana, were not permitted to pass through Alabama unless they had spent seven days in detention. In one case a prominent cotton man who had business in Atlanta and went there and transacted his business in a day. He started back to New Orleans, but was intercepted in Alabama, and sent back to Atlanta on the ground that he be seven days out of Louisiana before he could pass through Alabama on his return. Governor Blanchard in a letter to Governor Jelks says he doubts whether any State in the union has a right to interfere with inter-state passenger traffic and expresses the hope that the matter will be taken into the Federal Courts for a test.

—Mary Brownhill, colored, was arrested this morning at 2 o'clock and sent to the police station in the patrol wagon. She was found stretched out in the Purcell alley and will have to face the Mayor to-day on a charge of being drunk and down.

RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE.

She Will Never Consent to Payment of an Indemnity.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

St. Petersburg, August 24.—2 A. M.—The Associated Press has the best of reasons and authority for declaring again, with increased emphasis, that Russia will never consent to the payment of an indemnity to Japan. Such payment would so gravely menace the vital interests of the state as to make this article in the Japanese terms utterly impossible of acceptance. Furthermore, the Associated Press has the same reasons and authority for the declaration that if Japan withdrew her indemnity demand peace would practicly be assured, as the Russian attitude on the other three points, including the cession of Sakhalin, does not preclude the possibility of reaching a satisfactory settlement on these points.

Indemnity is the crux of the whole matter. If this question can be arranged, it is believed here that all other questions on which there has been a divergence of opinion will probably settle themselves.

THE VIRGINIA PRIMARIES.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond, Va., August 23.—It appears that in the Democratic State primary held yesterday United States Senator Martin, who was opposed in his candidacy for re-election by Governor Montague, carried every congressional district, winning by a majority of about 15,000. Congressman Swanson was nominated for Governor by a plurality even greater than the above figure, getting more votes than both of his opponents—Judge Mann and Lieutenant Governor Willard—put together.

The total vote in the primary was unexpectedly small, probably not exceding 85,000. The results of the primary, which by the way, was somewhat an experiment, involving among other things the principle of choice of Federal senators by direct vote, are satisfactory to all concerned. No frauds or minor irregularities of any kind are reported from any quarter.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

W. C. Hardison, of Wadesboro, Shoots Himself Through the Head.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Charlotte, N. C., August 23.—W. C. Hardison, of Wadesboro, N. C., prominently identified in various enterprises in this State, committed suicide at 10 o'clock to-night by shooting himself through the head, only half an hour after reaching home from Blowing Rock, where he had been on account of his health. Immediately on reaching his home he went to his bedroom and shot himself, dying almost instantly. The suicide is attributed to ill health, coupled with recent heavy losses occasioned by the failure of the Independent Cotton Oil Company of Darlington, S. C. Mr. Hardison was owner of one of the mills controlled by this company. He was offered the presidency of the concern shortly before the suicide of President R. K. Dargan, but declined it.

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., August 23.—Prominent jurists from all sections of the United State gathered here to attend the opening sessions to-day of the twentieth annual meeting of the American Bar Association. Included in the number were Justices White and Brown, of the United States Supreme Court, and many professors of the various law schools connected with the great American universities. The conferences will continue through to-morrow and Friday.

As the first business of to-day's session the president of the association, Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, Va., delivered his address, paying especial attention to the most noteworthy changes in statute law made by Congress and in the various States Legislatures during the past year.

SEVERE ELECTRIC STORM.

One Person Killed and Telephones and Street Cars Disabled.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Atlanta, August 23.—An electric storm of remarkable severity accompanied by a high wind, visited this city today. One young man, James McDaniel, eighteen years old, was killed by lightning near the center of the city, and the Kimball House and State capitol were each struck twice by lightning, but no serious damage was caused to either building. Fully one thousand telephones are reported burned out, a score of electric street cars were burned out, windows were blown in, awnings carried away and numerous cellars were flooded. Seventenths of an inch of rain fell in ten minutes. The damage will amount to several thousand dollars.
